

A message from Sky's Chief Executive, Martin Stewart

Hi

Welcome to Sky Sport Next. We're delighted to have you in the Sky family!

As the home of sport in New Zealand, Sky is about the 'whole game', which means supporting all levels of sport – from grassroots to the elite. We understand the power of sport to inspire, to change lives and to bring communities together, and we have invested in Sky Sport Next to support grassroots sport and rising talent across New Zealand. We're here to help your sport to be seen and grow, and we can't wait to see what we can achieve together.

It's great to be working with Rob and the NZ Sport Collective, and I look forward to seeing your sports on the Sky Sport Next YouTube channel as well as on Sky Sport and Prime. I plan to get around the country and physically attend as many events as possible too.

Please feel free to contact me if you have ideas or suggestions, and welcome again to Sky Sport Next.

Martin
